

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Siobhan Hinker
Phone: (317) 826-7170
E-mail: shinker@schneidercorp.com

Third-Generation Owner Assumes Role as Schneider's CEO

Indianapolis, Ind., (November 25, 2008) - Indianapolis-based The Schneider Corporation announced yesterday that Victoria Schneider Temple has assumed the role of Chief Executive Officer and will continue to serve as Chairman of the Board.

She is excited for the opportunity to lead the company that her grandfather, Vincent Schneider, founded in 1962 and her father, John Schneider, led from 1982 to 1998. Temple and her brother, Barry Schneider, assumed ownership of the third-generation family-owned company in 2003.

Over the past two years, Temple has worked closely with and been mentored by Tom Vanneman, who will return to his Indianapolis-based consulting practice, Volatus Advisors, LLC. Vanneman served as president of The Schneider Corporation throughout this transition time and has instituted positive change in many of the ways the company approaches business.

"My parents, Barry and I are very appreciative for the commitment that Tom made to our company during his tenure here at Schneider," said Temple. "His leadership, expertise and guidance has set a solid foundation in place and has instilled the discipline that will allow us to go forward."

Over the last 46 years, The Schneider Corporation has built a reputation of providing quality integrated services and solutions to public and private sector clients and has grown to become one of the largest engineering firms in the state. Schneider's focus on accomplishing its clients' goals is based on living out its mission— 'we listen, we care, we communicate, and we follow-through.'

"Our family stands firmly behind Victoria in her new role," said Barry Schneider, owner and a member of Schneider's Board of Directors. "We look forward to the opportunity that lies ahead for the company to continue to provide excellence to our clients."

Temple first joined The Schneider Corporation in 1997. She earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame and her law degree from Ohio Northern University. Currently, Temple serves on the Cathedral High School Board of Directors and is actively involved in various youth and church-related activities. She has previously served on the Saint Theodore Guerin High School Executive Council and was a member of the Junior League of Indianapolis. Temple and her husband, Dave, a partner with the law firm of Drewry Simmons Vornehm, LLP, live in Carmel with their two daughters.

About The Schneider Corporation: Founded in Indianapolis, Indiana in 1962, The Schneider Corporation is a third-generation, family-owned company. Schneider provides consultative services and solutions which support public and private clients in planning, engineering, and managing growth within their communities. Schneider has assembled the brightest professionals in a variety of disciplines to best serve residential & commercial developers, local, state & federal government, healthcare & life sciences, transportation & utility infrastructure, and corporate & academic campus clients. Schneider employs over 200 professionals and has office locations throughout the Midwest and Southeast. Schneider is WBE-certified with State of Indiana and City of Indianapolis and HUB-certified with the City of Charlotte, North Carolina. Schneider is also one of the only engineering firms to be a Certified Safety Partner with MICCS and is a corporate member of the United States Green Building Council. For more information, please visit <http://www.schneidercorp.com>.

-END-